

Now Active in Rochester!

Alternative Baseball™ provides a traditional baseball experience (for those 15+) with autism & other special needs. The program was founded in Dallas, Georgia by a young man on the autism spectrum, with the goal to develop physical and social skills in an environment where players can be accepted for who they are, encouraged to be the best they can be, and instilled with the confidence needed for them to fulfill their dreams on and off the diamond.

Join today at:

ALTERNATIVEBASEBALL.ORG

For more information about the local program, please email rochesteralternativebaseball@gmail.com.